Today

By ARTHUR

(Copyright, 1928, by Star Company)

LOYD GEORGE, looking upon the Thames from his window, sees a river with a boat moving, "as it was in the days of Julius Caesar."

The Thames will soon be crowded again, for the strike cannot last. "You cannot build a whole nation," and you cannot permanently tie up a great country with a strike.

Five millions cannot rule forty-two millions, however great and cruel the injustice to mine workers.

WHEN LLOYD GEORGE speaks of the Thames, you remember that a day is coming, when all rivers, lakes, oceans, mountains and valleys will be empty of all life. This earth will die as men and animals die, gradually going to pieces, the fragments helping to build other planets, as animals die and feed other animals, as trees live on wood made of dead trees.

THAT DAY, fortunately, is millions of years away, according to scientists. Only twelve thousand years from the stone age the human race has scores of millions of years ahead of ceaselessly increasing knowledge, and perfecting evolution. But the remaining days of each of us are short, and the mine workers hurry.

ALL THE trades unions of Great Britain are called out, shutting off light, water, etc., says Lloyd George, "God knows what may happen."

He says even the Divinity could not tell what would happen if the government surrenders to force. That is exaggeration. If government surrenders to force, the conquering force becomes government.

That happened in France, Russia and has happened elsewhere. But the British government will not surrender.

Union labor will find a way and the strike, saving its face and the government's also.

THE ARCHBISHOP of Canterbury, head of the Church of England, gives his blessing to the following strike program: FIRST, cancel the unions' strike order.

SECOND, let government continue financial assistance to the coal industry.

THIRD, let the mine owners continue to work.

The promised strike of the Harvard students failed to materialize today. The Massachusetts General Hospital receives no support from City or State

A Great Boston Institution

Near the Cambridge Street bridge, on the banks of the Charles River, is a group of buildings filling an entire square and known as the Massachusetts General Hospital. Founded in 1811 by a small number of public-spirited citizens, this institution has steadily grown and constantly ministered to the health, welfare and economic usefulness of the community.

The Trustees of the Massachusetts General Hospital, as well as many of Boston's loyal physicians, are giving cheerfully and unsparringly of their time, in a spirit of unselfish devotion to this, the greatest cause in the world, the saving and upbuilding of suffering humanity.

The Massachusetts General Hospital receives no money from the state or any city, its great work being sustained and continued through personal gifts from generous citizens. It is now in urgent need of more than $3,000,000 to enlarge and improve its facilities, maintain its prestige as one of the great medical centers of the world, and care for the constantly increasing number of our citizens who need its help. To accomplish this purpose—to extend to every one the opportunity of giving to this great cause—is the reason for this advertisement.

We know that this appeal will be splendidly met in the interests of those men, women and children who daily through the doors of this hospital seeking that to which all are entitled, irrespective of race, religion, or means—health and renewed strength to take up again the duties of life, and carry on.

Here is your opportunity to help. Please send your gift to that the United States must have the claims upon the pole early upon the claims of the Bay of Adventure. It is pointed out that the fact of the matter is that the United States will be able to make more complete observations than Commander Byrd was able to make in his last flight.

Although it has been reported that Commander Byrd suffered from the extreme cold, he is said to be in excellent condition and tremendously happy.

It is expected here that the Byrd expedition will now carry out its original plans of establishing a base on Peary Land, Greenland, and that in the future its activities will center from there.

Peary Land is only a comparatively short flight from Svalbard, lying about 430 miles, and it is expected the planes in the Byrd expedition will be able to carry stores and supplies there with ease.

Commander Byrd, as a final effort, may attempt a flight from Peary Land to Alaska. His airplane, the "Polaris," is being repaired at Peary Land.

Commander Byrd's brother, Governor Harry Flood Byrd of Virginia, said at Richmond, "This has been as lucky a life as he has ever lived. He will come through even if 10 of 100 chances might be against him."

"He has always been such an adventurous fellow that we are relieved, though proud, that he has made the flight. If he had not and believed there was a chance of a chance, he would try again as soon as possible."

Danes Hurl Cold Water on Byrd Pole Claim

Copenhagen, May 10 (L.N.S.).

"Yellow sheepskin was hinted in scientific circles here today concerning the claim of Commander Richard Byrd to have flown over the North Pole.

Scientific circles admitted that the feat is not impossible, but they demand greater verification.

"We must remain skeptical until more exact information is at hand," said Lange Koch, noted Danish explorer. "The utmost that Commander Byrd will be able to prove is that the distance he has flown agrees with the distance between Kings Bay and the North Pole and return. At best he possibly will only be able to prove that he has been within a hundred kilometers of the pole."

"Commander Byrd cannot know definitely whether he has been at the polar point. If he bases his assertion solely on general estimates, then his assertion is not worth much."

headings in Arctic explorations," said Mr. Selassion.

"Commander Byrd had two objectives. He has attained one of them. This clears the way for his more ambitious and more important flight to the northwest of Peary Land in search of unknown land, and I hope he will be equally successful in that."

"Two Russian polar expeditions are on the verge of departure, a French expedition with planes and dog sleds will leave later, and Lieutenant Leigh Wade, American, around the world, will lead the American university expedition over the pole in a few days for a short route from London to Tokyo."

Because there were no blood stains or signs of a struggle in Ward's car, Tennessee police believe that Ward left the machine "for reasons of his own."

It was learned at Ward's office that he had been in Baltimore earlier in the week, indicating that the search might lead to that city. Ward, who is thirty-five, has had a career filled with thrills. After marrying Miss Marie Curtis, formerly of Stamford, Conn., in 1915, he gained a reputation as a race track plugger and a frequenter of the bright lights of New York and other cities, particularly Pittsburgh.

MISSING SINCE APRIL 16. She had been sought since April 16 when, according to what the police and detectives could learn, she wandered away from the farm during her mother's absence and while the father, Ignatius Bakish, was cutting firewood.

Three feet of water was in the shed pool on Sunday when Stephen Bakish, brother of Mrs. Bakish, the baby's mother, declared that she was looking about the shed.

With his dog he had searched for some time before coming to the pool rimmed in by bushes and brush. The dog roared his way through and Bakish, following, saw the motionless form of the girl, fully clothed.

The baby's aunt sent his daughter, Janet, back to notify the police and Chief Thompson gave the body into the care of the medical examiner.

FLIGHT IS THRILLING DADDY'S BABY

"My Daddy Flew over the Pole," She Boasts to Visitor

"Well, you'd be proud, too, if your daddy flew over the North Pole."

Three blond-haired kiddies at No. 1 Brinton street looked at the front page picture in the Boston Evening American of Lieutenant-Commander Richard B. Byrd today, and exclaimed, "Daddy!"

They are Katherine, Evelyn and Richard Byrd, 3rd, children of the famous air explorer, who are sitting with their grandmother, Mrs. Helen A. Ames.

Katherine, only two, is just old enough to know that it's something of a feat to fly over the pole. "My daddy flew over the North Pole," she said a little boastfully.

EVELYN THIRLED. Evelyn, who pointed to the picture of her father, her big blue eyes wide open with wonder. "That's my daddy," she said, sitting the "my" and placing a chubby little finger on the picture.

She's three and one-half years old. Richard, 4, a really little fellow of 3, also was quite enthusiastic. "When I get big I'm going to the North Pole," he exclaimed. "It's an airship, too," he explained.

The three children, gathered around the paper spread before them, looked wondrously at the picture.

BYRD WELL KNOWN HERE. Commander Byrd is well known in Boston and also in other cities. He lived here while commanding the Navy station, and also was able to the commandant of the Charleston Navy Yard.

Mrs. Byrd is a Boston girl, the daughter of Mrs. Joseph H. H. Ames.

Mrs. Byrd was expected here today to see her mother, who is ill in bed.

Before leaving Washington, she telegraphed her mother the joyful news of her husband's triumph.

It is a great relief to her, Mrs. Ames declared. "She has worried ever since he proposed the trip, but never failed in her faith in his ability to reach the goal."

GOODE IS GLATED TO BE CHIEF

John R. McGarr Expected to Retire From Department After Vacation in June

A big re-organization is contemplated in the detective branch of the Boston police department, it was rumored today, as soon as the department is transferred to the new headquarters.

The first change will come with the retirement of Chief Inspector John R. McGarr, who will retire from police work after the vacation of June 1st, after two weeks of vacation.

Commissioner Wilson's plan of re-organization of the department, it is understood, has Deputy Superintendent Thomas F. Goode, now head of the traffic department, slated to succeed Chief Inspector McGarr.

New faces will be seen then in the department to fill the vacancies that have occurred from time and never have been filled. Of New blood, is the aim of the commissioner. It is said, New equipment and the first time since it was started, the detective bureau will be kept open at night, with a large force of officers. It was asserted by one of the officers.

SEVERAL PERSONS, now doing plain clothes work, but without the rank of detective sergeant, may be added in rank with the change in the department and many new faces will be added.

Chief McGarr will be 43 years years old in August. He has contemplated retirement for several months, according to many who know him well. He is recognized as an expert on criminology. He was made head of the department on August 1, 1917. He was then a captain-inspector. He succeeded Deputy Joseph Duggan. McGarr was appointed to the police department on April 20, 1915.

RABIES MENACING

LIVES IN NEW JERSEY

Trenton, N. J., May 10 (A.P.).—Adoption by all municipalities of ordinances requiring the vaccination of dogs was again urged today by Dr. Henry H. Condit, director of the State Department of Health, to prevent the spread of rabies. Only by drastic action, he warned, can the dread disease be checked.

Dr. Condit was prompted, he said, by unnecessary death from rabies in Hudson County, where a baby girl was bitten on the lip and over the chin May 7. The child, after treatment was delayed until nine days after the attack and the child died.

"The disease is still spreading, in spite of existing ordinances adopted by the more progressive localities," asserted Dr. Condit.

"RADIO BURGLAR" IS SENTENCED TO DEATH. New York, May 10 (INS).—Paul E. Hilton, the "radio burglar," was sentenced today to die in the Sing Sing Prison electric chair the week of June 20 by Judge Frank P. Kelly in Queens County Court for the murder of Patrolman Arthur Kennedy in Woodhull, Long Island, last March 25. Hilton killed Kennedy during one of numerous robberies of radio sets.

2 MAYORS BACK GIRLS' CAMP PROPOSAL

Mayor D. C. Chelmsford, Mayor of Everett, today expressed his approval of the idea of Summer training camps for girls as "an inspiration toward better citizenship." "20 with O. Childs, Mayor of Seaside, favored the idea on general principles."

The approval of the two suburban mayors, such as widely known in Boston as in his home city together with the recent letters from other mayors and young girls in endorsement of the suggestion, are further evidence of the character of the "Helen Mahoney idea" has been received by the public.

Mayor Chelmsford said: "My reasons for approving the basic idea are not unlike those stated by Mayor Bauer of Lynn."

"Women no longer are mere interested observers, innocent bystanders, but are, and for several years have been, voters. The famous old constitutional question, 'Are women people?' has been answered in the affirmative. They are citizens."

"If the women of the country are in favor of Summer training camps for girls, the camps are bound to come. Ways and means will be devised, I believe we can take it for granted that it is not proposed to give the girls the same sort of training that their brothers will receive at Camp Devens. If they can be trained in citizenship, the while they are enjoying life in the outdoors, enough will have been accomplished to promise a healthier, happier and better America."

"I have not had the time," Mayor Childs said, "to go into the proposition very deeply, nor do I understand that any plan has been agreed upon. In general, however, the idea of training camps for girls appears to be meritorious, and I favor the suggestion on general principles."

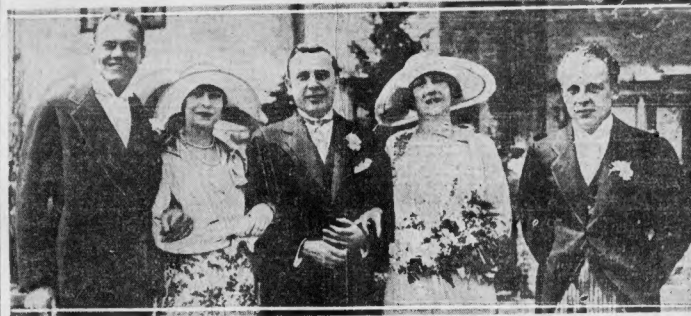

Everything calculated to develop the youth of America mentally, physically and spiritually is a fine thing. There are immense possibilities in the suggestion that has been made and I shall watch its development with friendly interest."

PASTOR QUILTS IN STRIFE

Fairview, R. T., May 10 (A.P.).—A split in the Fairview Congregational Church congregation, which first became apparent in November, 1925, has reached its climax with the resignation of the Rev. Edward R. Evans, pastor since 1912.

In reading his resignation the pastor cited the refusal of the congregation to appoint an assistant to take over some of the burden of a parish which covers twenty square miles and which has grown unwieldy.

"We are still trying to carry on," the minister said, "with a physical condition not essentially different from that of fifty years ago. His resignation takes effect next September 1."

Ex-Governor Dying. New York, May 10 (A.P.).—Former Governor Alvan W. Gilchrist of Florida was reported to be dying today at the Hospital for Burned and Crippled. Dr. William E. Cole said his condition was critical and that he did not expect him to live more than twenty-four hours.

MILLIONAIRE IN HUGE RUM PLOT INDICTMENTS

New York, May 10 (A.P.).—A conspiracy involving the smuggling of many million dollars worth of liquor was revealed today when United States District Attorney Buckner opened a sealed indictment.

The accused, all under bail on previous charges involving prohibition violation, are Emil Wurmser, Irving Austin, Harry Lawson, alias Harry Nelson, Harry Sluski, Charles Berg and Robert Olsen.

HEM BOUGHT AHEAD. Wurmser, an alien, who has lived twenty years in the United States, is described as a "millionaire resident of Riverside Drive," formerly legitimately in the liquor business.

His alleged activities were buying and arranging for shipment of liquors from abroad, chartering fleet of motorboats to facilitate landing the liquor at Portchester, N. Y.

Attest is a Portchester real estate owner and former president of the Portchester Chamber of Commerce, Government investigators claim he was the "local fixer," whose duty it was to provide safe conduct for the liquor through Portchester.

CALLED "PAYOFF" MAN. Sluski, who rents a store at Portchester, was known as the "payoff" man.

Lawson of Atlantic City was known as the liaison officer in touch with "Run Run."

LEADERS DEFEND CRIMSON SPORTS. Harvard undergraduate leaders were given a chance to explain in private to the Board of Overseers today, Captain Ralph Cheek of last season's eleven. Captain Tibbets of the track team, Del Hinch, president of the Club, and Edward A. A. of the Crimson and others making their appearance.

Cheek touched on the athletic situation and the causes of the shake-up that resulted in the appointment of Bill Brimacombe as athletic director. The demand for splitting up of Harvard into a group of small colleges on the Oxford plan, was explained by Atwell.

BAR 13 SECURITIES UNDER BLUE SKY LAW. The Public Utilities Commission today barred the sale in Massachusetts of the securities of 13 corporations, associations and trusts for failure to comply with the provisions of the "Blue Sky" law which provides that the corporations file with the commission complete information as to the company and its business.

GREENLAND EXPEDITION

SHIP SAILS FOR NORTH

New York, May 10 (A.P.)—The schooner "Mortimer," which is to carry the Greenland expedition to the American Museum of Natural History into polar waters in search of specimens of marine life, has sailed for New York from Brigas, Newfoundland, George Palmer Putnam, director of the expedition, made the announcement here today. The "Mortimer" is a 160-ton schooner, owned by its commander, Captain Robert A. Bartlett, skipper of two of Admiral Peary's exploration ships.

SCHOONER IS SAVED

BY COAST GUARDSMEN

Stockport, Me., May 10.—The two-masted schooner "Grace Stevens," pulled off Iron Point by the Coast Guard cutter "Merrill," will go on the "Merrill" today. The vessel is owned by Captain Herbert Stevens of Blue Hill and was bound from Gloucester, Mass., to this port with machinery and a deckload of fish. She struck while backing through the "Thoroughfare." After the schooner was pulled off Iron Point she went on her beam end, but was later towed into port.

200 PRIESTS FROM ERIN

A large number of priests will further represent Ireland in the Congress (convening, Cardinal O'Donnell of Armagh, Primate of Ireland, is among those scheduled to come).

withdraw their new wage scale, making wages lower and hours longer.

WHY NOT begin with number THREE and make the two others unnecessary?

IF THE FOUNDER of Christianity were on earth today, you think he would say when he learned that a few Irish missionaries had added one hour to the workman's daily labor, taking a fourth and one-third per cent of the wages that he food for his children? Would he not say to the rich, as St. James says to those that prey on the poor, "Go to now, ye rich, weep and howl?"

THE POST OFFICE announces that fifty cities in the United States increased their postal receipts in April more than 6 per cent over the same month a year ago.

Unfortunately, figures concerning use of air mail would be discouraging.

It is necessary to warn subscribers anxious for air mail service that TO GET IT THEY MUST SUPPORT IT. If not, they will lose it.

The government cannot run an expensive air mail service merely because cities desire it.

POSTMASTER GENERAL Clegg is anxious to encourage profitable commercial flying through development of the air mail. But cities and citizens cost their part.

One air route recently established to the South for business, serving four important cities, started off magnificently with receipts in the first brief period exceeding $500, ample to cover expenses. On the tenth day, receipts had dropped to $79, to an expense of $400. That of course was not.

IT IS NOT EXPECTED that air mail alone should support the flying post office service. But all interested should contribute. Banks should be interested in using air mail, to discourage check kiting, and promote business.

THE FINANCIAL solution will be found eventually in carrying passengers as well as mail, an arrangement to which the administration would gladly consent. The first problem would be to find the passengers. Americans largely support flying routes in Europe, occupying more than half the seats in flying machines between London and Paris in the season. They seem less inclined to patronizing their own land.

EXTREMELY important is the test for cancer recently presented at the French Academy of Medicine. If the discoverers do not exaggerate, this test, providing a reliable reaction in cancer cases, will enable doctors to save thousands annually that now die by diagnosing cancer at the very start. That disease kills forty thousand every year in France, many more in America.

There is even talk of a serum treatment for cancer, but all such talk must be considered cautiously.

MANUFACTURERS should turn their eyes toward the water. The Boulder Dam will supply hundreds of thousands of cheap horse power. Every big manufacturer should consider the possibilities of cheap power and reasonably priced labor, plus a magnificent selling market, all along the Pacific.

MYSTERY MA VIEWS BODY OF
POND VICTIM

While the police of Lynfield were clinging to the theory of foul play in connection with the findings of the body of an unidentified woman in a village pond, further mystery was added by the sudden appearance of a man, said to closely resemble the victim, who hastened away after viewing the body, without giving his name.

The man appeared shortly after an autopsy performed by Dr. Horace K. Foster. He gazed at the woman's features for some moments and then refused to reveal his identity.

On the shore, about 40 yards from where the body was found, the pond, exactly corresponding in shape to the body, was fastened the man's belief that the woman was taken from the shore.

It was found that the pond is many inches deep, and police say it would be impossible for one to walk out far enough to drown, more especially with a weight to carry. The fact which was fastened the man's belief that the woman was taken from the shore.

INDICT 300 IN CHICAGO DRIVE
Chicago, May 10 (A.P.)—Chicago was "shaken up and dried up" as a result of the drive on crime begun after the slaying of William Hamm, Jr., by the police.

Chief of Police Phillips said today that 300 indictments by police warranted 200 indictments, he said.

The Special Grand Jury resumed inquiry into the escape of seven convicts from prison with indications that the investigation would intensify the subject of pardons and paroles.

FIFTY KILLED AS FRENCH GUNS BOMBARD DAMASCUS
Jerusalem, May 10 (A.P.).—Fifty French soldiers were killed when French warships bombarded Damascus a second time, French consulars were not stated. The French consulars say the bombardment became necessary when it was learned rebels were planning to capture the city. Damage to property was considerable.

WOUNDED VETS OFFERED HOME

In a letter to the Boston Evening American, a mother whose eldest son was killed in action April 20, 1918, states her desire to do something for wounded veterans now confined in government hospitals. Mrs. Mary E. Akins of Rayham Center, a small village near Taunton, has six and a half acres of farm land at her disposal, 125 chickens and hens, plenty of fresh eggs and milk, and a barn where she is, wants to share it with her "boys."

CUBANS URGE BERLENBACH TO GIVE UP FISTICUFFS
Havana, Cuba, May 10 (A.P.).—Havana players of the game of Jai Alai, played with a hard rubber ball thrown from a ladder, strayed on the hands of the players, say Paul Berlenbach is a promising prospect if he could be persuaded to drop his boxing and concentrate on the game.

The light heavyweight champion here on a vacation, met the leading Cuban player of Jai Alai and joined them in practice. Occasionally knocked down by the return from the west coast which it is thrown with terrific speed. The National Boxing Commission offered Berlenbach matches with Cuban champions, but he declined.

TO SETTLE FATE OF LEAGUE

By NORMAN HAFSGOOD,
Universal Service Correspondent.
Washington, May 9.—Tomorrow is the day when representatives of the great European nations begin negotiations on the question of what to do with the council of the League of Nations. As England will be represented by Lord Cecil, instead of Sir Austen Chamberlain, Great Britain's point of view will not be so much influenced by France.

Cecil has made it clear he takes British policy to be that only the great powers should have permanent seats on the council. So much for the claims of Spain, Poland and Brazil.

Cecil is also determined to do nothing to discourage Germany from joining the league in September. Whether Germany will go or not is practically up to France. The French and some of their allies, like Benes of Czechoslovakia, object to Germany's treaty with Russia, on the ground it conflicts with article 14 of the league covenant. It doesn't, but what makes it funny is that France has been busy making the same kind of treaties, the last one being with Turkey.

Whenever any nation makes a new arrangement with Russia, there is a row all over Europe. Europe can not make the same kind of treaties, Macbeth made when he cried:

"Approach thou like the rugged Russian bear,
My frame shall never tremble."
Heaven's much doubt myself that the chief point of view will triumph at the meeting that begins tomorrow. Most of the forces that want Germany in the league hope that before many years Russia will be in also, and know she can only come in if she has a seat in the council.

HONORS FOR PEABODY IN HALL OF FAME
New York, May 10.—Tribute will be paid this week to America's forgotten hero, George Peabody, when his statue is unveiled at the annual ceremony of our National Hall of Fame, Wednesday, May 12.

Fifty-seven years ago when George Peabody died, no man in the world was better known. He received more honors during his lifetime than perhaps any other American before or since. Congress voted him a special medal and Queen Victoria presented him with a beautiful jeweled miniature of herself, especially made. Two American towns, a great American college and museum at Harvard, Yale and Baltimore bear George Peabody's name.

THUGS RIDDLE NOTED GANG LEADER FOR SIXTH VICTIM
Philadelphia, May 10 (A.P.).—Warfare in Philadelphia's underworld has taken a toll of six lives within a month and the police today did not see any signs of a lull. The latest victim, Harry Burton, was killed by bullets in broad daylight by six men, the authorities believe in revenge for the wounding of a number of a rival gang.

Burton was bound for a magistrate's office for a hearing on charge of implication in abducting last week of Charles Korman of Brooklyn to whom his associates crowded his automobile to the curb and opened fire with pistols and sawed off shotguns. The six men, believed to be New Yorkers, escaped before the police arrived.

DEPORTED MAN HAS BEEN ADMITTED, U. S. SAYS

As of the most peculiar immigration angles was revealed with the effect now being made to prevent admission to this country of Joseph Moles, a British subject, who planned to enter the Boston University.

Moles is recorded as having been admitted to the country on April 24, the same time he was deported from a Montreal from Ellis Island on the date, because he had no one to sponsor him here.

Signifying here from Brazil, though a native of Australia, he should have been sent back to the same country under the quota laws.

SOLON BOOSTS PENSIONS

By EDWARD M. MATZ,
Member House of Representatives
Ward 3, Boston.

I take pleasure in endorsing the Casey-Thomas-Boston Evening American pension bill. The passage of this bill would be a great boon to the widows and children of firemen and policemen killed in the performance of their duties.

Living in the South End, as I do, I have seen many policemen and firemen risking their lives during their work.

Only the other night, I witnessed a spectacular rescue of an aged woman from a ten-story building in Troy street, during a fire. A policeman and a fireman both risked their lives to accomplish this feat.

A slip on the part of either might have meant instant death.

I believe the bill ought to be amended to include members of the bureau of supply and repair, and members of the fire alarm department. There are about 100 in those two groups and they are civilian members of the fire department.

These men also take their lives in their hands in repairing broken fire alarm cables and other hazardous work. The families of these men must be protected.

I will do all in my power when this bill comes before the Legislature to insure its prompt passage.

THUG MILLER PLEADS GUILTY

John Miller, twenty-four, of Brookline, N. Y., one of four men captured in Darien, Ct., was arraigned in East Cambridge court today in connection with the bodies of the Atlantic and Pacific Tea store, No. 112, Main street, Cambridge.

Miller pleaded guilty to charges of assault and battery with a dangerous weapon with intent to rob Charles B. Folkins, and robbery of $50, the property of the A. & P. Company. He was held for the Grand Jury in jail of $25,000.

The other three men arrested with Miller, are now held by the New York police on suspicion of being connected with three Brooklyn murders. They are John Martin, twenty-one, alias Maxwell and Noah; Adolph Barack and his brother, William Barack, all of Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Cambridge police are trying to connect the latter two with the Lever Brothers payroll robbery when $12,000 was stolen in a sensational raid of back messengers. The Barack brothers had worked in Cambridge a year ago and admit they were living there at the time of the Lever holdup.

WOMAN KILLED, MAN HURT IN SHOTGUN DUEL

Sacramento, Cal., May 10 (A.P.)—Mrs. William Duncan of Williams, 10 miles northwest of here, is dead and John "Fred" Hasche is seriously wounded after a shotgun duel yesterday in the yard of the Duncan home. Hasche found his wife, telling Mrs. Duncan he ordered her to leave the house. When he attempted to enter the yard Mrs. Duncan told him to "stop or I'll get a shotgun and shoot you," Mrs. Hasche declared. Both Fred and Mrs. Duncan were struck in the head and Hasche was wounded in the stomach. He is in a serious condition.

SELECTMAN CARRIES WIFE FROM BURNING HOME

Springfield, May 10.—Mrs. H. Preston Worden, wife of the chairman of the Agawam Board of Selectmen, was carried to safety by her husband today, after being overcome by smoke, when their home at 42 principal street, Agawam, was destroyed by fire.

Aroused by the crackling of the flames, the couple, who had been sleeping on the second floor, went to the hall only to find the front stairs cut off. They started down the rear stairs and Mrs. Worden collapsed. The fire is believed to have started from embers in the fireplace and caused damage estimated at $10,000.

MILLION LOST IN WOOD FIRES

Damage in excess of $1,000,000, it is estimated, was caused by forest fires in the East during the last few weeks, with thousands of acres of timberland destroyed by fire now under control in many parts of New England, and several big forest fires still raging in other Eastern States.

A woman lost her life in New Jersey when a forest fire near the coast destroyed sixteen houses that were situated in its path.

More than fourteen square miles of smoldering stumps were left in the wake of a disastrous fire near Hudson, N. J., and a fire that swept the wooded sections of Franklin and Wrentham was brought under control only after burning over 1,000 acres. A serious fire in the Diamond Hill district of Cumberland, N. H., was checked by back fire after sweeping over a large area.

The G-BOY

A NEW ONE TON TRUCK Graham Brothers latest and most impressive achievement

Graham Brothers latest and most impressive achievement—the G-BOY!

A one ton truck embodying entirely new ideas in design and balance and selling at an astonishing price.

Extraordinary purchasing power and vast production made the G-BOY possible.

Largest exclusive truck manufacturers in the world, Graham Brothers buy and build in enormous volume.

The price and quality of the G-BOY illustrate the extent to which buyers benefit by this volume and its resultant economies.

The G-BOY is the most important contribution in years to the cause of Better Transportation at Lower Cost.

A new system of weight distribution effects a revolutionary improvement in balance.

The compact wheelbase facilitates ease of handling and yet affords unusually generous body capacity. The truck is gracefully low, with steel spoke wheels and 30 x 5 truck type cord tires.

Dodge Brothers engine is the standard power unit, with a new heavy transmission that has proved its quality in greater capacity types.

The entire truck, in fact, is built to out-live and out-perform trucks costing hundreds of dollars more.

Bodies for the G-BOY—and for Graham Brothers complete line of Trucks and Motor Coaches—are built in Graham Brothers own factory at Evansville, Ind.—the most modern plant of its kind in America. Whatever your requirements may be, a suitable body is immediately available at an attractive price.

Dempsey Stopped Miske

THIS is the fortieth of a series of boxing fights covered by Tad the greatest sporting columnist and boxing authority in publication in this country. You have covered all the big fights held in this country for the past thirty years. In this review of prominent boxing he tells not alone of the upsurges, but of the men of the measure of many fine who have sustained thrilling contests in the smaller clubs.

ON September 6, 1920, in a big open-air arena at Boston Harbor, Michigan, Jack Dempsey knocked Billy Miske for the count of ten after eight rounds of a twelve-round fight.

Miske was a big, powerful, and a great fighter. He had been a great fighter. He stood the heaviest of blows and the power of a two-pounder there was no doubt in the ring. He could trade with the best of them and was feared by all.

HE was Dempsey's pal in former years. Billy and Jack lived one another and had already done two turns for the fans without losing touch. One was a record affair and the other a bit. This, however, was before Dempsey had won the heavyweight title.

In 1920 Dempsey was a champion. He had beaten Willard the year before in that smothered arena at Toledo, Ohio.

HERE was Dempsey with a title at stake and, although he was to box his old ally-billy Miske, he could take no chances with his crown. It had been rumored that Billy was a coward and that he had some organic trouble but the fans of Miske and Dempsey didn't want to know that. Fighting it out was just the thing.

CHAMPIONS had been advised before thought, the careful pair. No can't trade any more, they were a title at stake, so Kearns and Dempsey hung up their gloves and behind the scenes.

WE THOUGHT IN 1920 ALL OF US THAT PAT CARBON. They had their own private corner. Jimmy Langworthy, of Philadelphia, brought on and appeared to be the best and went on with the training as usual.

Dempsey wasn't much of a man, although he stood and he was afraid that after a month of training he wouldn't be ready. He feared a sign of defeat and his ability to stand out in the ring of the best of the best.

IT WAS in his dressing room an hour before the fight when a gambler friend of Dempsey's came in and told him of a bet on a K O was a good one.

Well, I said, Dempsey was a big man, a growth of whiskers, and Miske was a big man. He was a tough fellow. I'm going to stop him before he gets into the ring.

At the middle of the fight, the referee saw Sam Langford fight an opponent, and he was a big man. He was a tough fellow. I'm going to stop him before he gets into the ring.

MISKE and Dempsey entered and in a jiffy things were all set. They went to the ring and facing one another and it was words but the fight was on. Miske was a big man and he was a tough fellow. I'm going to stop him before he gets into the ring.

Langford was a big man and he was a tough fellow. I'm going to stop him before he gets into the ring. He was a tough fellow. I'm going to stop him before he gets into the ring.

In the second round, Dempsey was a big man and he was a tough fellow. I'm going to stop him before he gets into the ring. He was a tough fellow. I'm going to stop him before he gets into the ring.

The TREASURE every man has been hunting for

HERE'S plum duff, my hearties! As sweet a gale of good news as ever piped-up the spirits of a gallant crew . . .

Treasure is at hand! The long-hidden treasure of a better cigarette . . .

A cooler, smoother, more winsome cigarette—such as every mate and man has been hanker-ing for . . .

As welcome to the taste as a cask of doubloons to the purse . . . with 15c as the only tariff on your share!

This new cigarette, called OLD GOLD, is the product of America's most illustrious tobaccoists—The P. Lorillard Company . . . who were blending fine tobacco sixteen years before John Hancock made history with his signature.

For 166 years Lorillard's has hoarded and accumulated its entire store of tobacco experience with an eye to one ultimate ambition—

The making of a superlative cigarette to be sold at a rock-bottom price!

And here it is...in OLD GOLD.

It is a cooler cigarette. The heavier and coarser leaf has been discarded for hand selected lighter and finer leaf—requiring less draught and bringing less heat to the lips.

It is a smoother and milder cigarette. A new day method takes out all harshness in the tobacco, tempering the balance to gentle perfection.

It is a more fragrant and pleasingly gratifying cigarette. Only the pick of the choicest Turkish and domestic tobaccos is used in OLD GOLD, chosen and blended by old masters to bring out the utmost in aromatic smoking quality.

SO join the rollicking crew and sail to the treasureland of OLD GOLD today. Buy one package now—that's all we ask. We shall be more than content to let that trial package be its own bid for your permanent patronage.

You don't need your pick and shovel. With 15c, you can unearth the treasure of OLD GOLD at any cigarette counter in town.
